A. A. Assembly Rejects Cut in Practice to Five Years.

Aleany, April 18.—The Assembly passed a bill to-day by Senator Milh relative to practice in the inferior criminal courts of New York city, which was keneded in the Assembly so as to strike out a provision reducing from ten to five the number of years a candidate for the position of Chief Justice or Associate Justice of Special Sessions must practice before being eligible for appointment.

Assemblyman, Brennan of Kings tried to have the bill again amended to-day to put back the eligibility provision. Other New York city members, however, on the Democratic side attacked the graphs and the particular man is discovered as a single purpose under the sum," says the Mayor, "for which this most amazing appropriation cannot be used I would thank some one to point it out.
